Apply type theory to better understand how to maximize the benefits of diversity of thought and contribution, essential building blocks to an innovative, collaborative and learning culture.

The Myers-Briggs Type Indicator® (MBTI®) Master Class Series Workshops are designed for certified practitioners who wish to deepen their understanding of type theory and its practical application.

Workshop Details

Many organizations now recognize diversity as both a key value and an essential ingredient to nurturing a high performing workplace. Diversity encompasses many dimensions, the focus of this workshop being diversity of thought and contribution. We each bring our own mental preferences and processes to the workplace and the MBTI® framework is an excellent means by which we can explore how to maximize diversity of thought and contribution in areas including:

- Communication styles
- Team work and collaboration
- Change management
- Innovation process
- Problem solving
- Decision making
